DETAILED ACTION

Title

The title of the invention is not descriptive and contains method language. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

Claims 27-29 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Estacio et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,649,961 B2).

In re claim 27, Estacio (e.g., Fig. 13, 18, 22) discloses a semiconductor device, comprising:

An interconnect layer (43) provided over a semiconductor substrate;

An electrically conductive anti-oxidizing layer (42) formed in contact with a part of said interconnect layer and containing a same element as an element in said interconnect layer, that is chemically bonded or alloyed with a different element which is different from said element contained in said interconnect layer; and

Art Unit: 2815

A bonding pad metal film (101) provided over said electrically conductive anti-oxidizing layer to form an electrical connection with said interconnect layer.

In re claim 28, Estacio discloses the device of claim 27, wherein said interconnect layer (43) is a copper-containing metal, and said electrically conductive anti-oxidizing layer (42) contains Ti-Cu.

In re claim 29, Estacio discloses the device of claim 28, further comprising:

An electrically conductive protective film (53a) intervening between said electrically conductive anti-oxidizing layer and said bonding pad metal film.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 30 and 31 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Estacio (as above) in view of Brady et al. (U.S. Patent No. 5,134,460).

In re claim 30, Estacio discloses the device of claim 29, but does not expressly disclose a protective film comprising Ti or TiN. Brady (e.g., Figs. 5, 6) discloses the use of a titanium nitride barrier layer. It would have been obvious for one skilled in the art at the time of the invention to use a titanium nitride layer as disclosed by Brady for the device of Estacio for the purpose, for example, of using the titanium nitride layer to decrease the number of metal layers needed for the final device structure (Brady; column 9, lines 12-13).

In re claim 31, Estacio in view of Brady discloses the device of claim 30, further comprising:

A solder ball (top of metal film 101) adhering to said bonding pad metal film.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-7 and 20-26 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 27-31 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
